

Organizing for Justice

This 8 – week class is designed to provide participants with information and skills on basic organizing principles.

We will be discussing process, group dynamics, tactics and strategy. In the process of investigating aspects of organizing we will look at numerous historical examples and develop a methodology for multi-issue organizing that can increase the capacity of any organizing effort to build alliances and promote solidarity.

We will be using lots of online resources, movement building resources from Project South, DVDs and numerous case studies of organizing from around the world.

The class will be on Wednesday nights from 7 – 9PM beginning September 28. The class will take place in one of the community rooms at the Steepletown Center located at 671 Davis NW in Grand Rapids.

The cost of the class is $20, which does not include the cost of the book.
